

AND NOW FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT ...

Many of you will know that my son became a Christian at WEC Camp when he was 11 in 1994 and he has been back there every year since. As well as being part of Prep Week (setting up the camp) and Rear-guard (dismantling the camp), he is one of the chief tent repairers, regularly the resident first aider, safeguarding adviser and now chief engineer.

The poem will explain what that means! Derek.

In a Christian camp, where love abounds,
A humble home shower, a treasure found.
Amidst the trees, where faith's embrace,
A place of solace, a sacred space.

Constructed with care, by willing hands,
A symbol of unity, as God commands.
Within these walls, souls cleanse and mend,
In prayerful whispers, hearts ascend.

Beneath the sun's warm, heavenly glow,
Blessed waters flow, like grace bestowed.
Children laugh, in joyful play,
Their spirits lifted, hearts in sway.

In this haven, souls find reprieve,
A place of comfort, where beliefs weave.
Where friendships blossom, bonds ignite,
And hope springs eternal, day and night.

A home made shower, a testament true,
To faith, to love, to skies of blue.
On this Christian camp, hearts are stirred,
In unity, they find the Word.

TODAY'S WORSHIP SERVICE – This morning we return to our series based on the Book of James entitled 'Faith in Action'. Throughout this letter, James' driving concern is that his readers should be credible Christians and that their faith in Christ should be proved genuine by the quality of their living. Today we reach part four in our series based on James 2:1-13 as we tackle the problem of favouritism. This passage highlights a crucial aspect of our faith journey - treating all people equally. James stresses that our faith is not merely about beliefs; it's about how those beliefs transform our actions. The title of my talk today is 'No favourites here.' This service will also include our monthly communion service.

Of course, we do hope you can join us for the service in the church but if you can't actually join us, you will be able to access the service at any time by going to: <http://www.aldwickbaptist.co.uk/category/current-sermons>.

This week Arthur recalls a time when as a driving instructor, he was asked to guide two lost people through the maze of roads in Chichester. The title of his story is 'Lost and Found'.

Lost and Found

When I was a driving instructor if my pupils lived outside of my area, I would meet them in the railway car park. One day a pupil was getting out of my car after a lesson when a lady who was looking very distressed came running over to my car.

"Please can you help us?", she said, "My husband and I have been driving around Chichester for over an hour. We are looking for the Nuffield Hospital. My husband is very upset as he is worried about his brother who is very unwell in the hospital. Please can you help us?".

Now, as Chichester can be a very complicated place to drive around with so many roundabouts and one-way roads, I suggested her husband followed me in his car as I headed off to the hospital.

When we drove into the hospital car par, this very loud cheer came from their car as I waved goodbye.

I thought what a wonderful feeling when you find the way after being lost!
