This week's Poem

This week Arthur's poem reminds us that there are so many people who are going about their business without a thought of their eternal destination. They simply can't see that they are lost and in danger.

LOST

They say we are like ships
That pass in the night.
Here for a moment
And then out of sight.
"We're just passing through",
You hear them cry.
"Live, laugh and be merry
For tomorrow we die."
They're just like a speck of sand
Lost in no man's land.
Lost in time and space.
For in their world, God has no place.
They seem blind to see
That beyond the temporary
In Christ we have eternity.
They ask me, "How do you know
What you say is true?"
I say, " I know … because once
I was lost like you."

And finally

FIRST RESPONDER - Simon is our first responder for all urgent matters for the time being. For less urgent problems, please use our pastoral care system by contacting your pastoral group coordinator. Derek.

MARION BRYANT – Good news, Marion is now back at home after seven weeks in hospital. She is slowly recovering and gradually regaining her strength but is still in need of your prayers as there is still a long way to go. Marion wants to thank you for your prayers and sends a big hug to you all.

A REMINDER ABOUT LUCIA – Lucia has an appointment at Great Ormond Street on the 23rd November. In the meantime she is currently on vacation at home as the hospital want to see how she copes with everyday life. She goes back to Southampton on the 8th November for a two day checkup when she will then be on the final level of the drug. Despite everything she remains cheerful and looks a lot better. She is still not able to exert herself and knows when she needs to sit down. Thank you for your prayers but do keep on praying for healing and peace of mind.

HEATHER GAUDOIN – Good news, Heather is making good but slow progress after her recent operation. Unsurprisingly, she is very tired and now needs time to rest and recover. Do thank God for the success of this operation and continue to pray for ongoing healing. Please do not try to contact Heather for the time being as she needs peace and quiet. Many thanks for all the prayer support.

ERNIE PUFFETT – Simon managed to see Ernie in hospital this week following his stroke a couple of weeks ago. Ernie has no real movement down his left-hand side and his speech is very slurred but he is receiving the best of care. Please pray for peace of mind and ongoing healing.
