SUNDAY'S WORSHIP SERVICE – 27th September. This service will be one of our quarterly Mission Focus services, giving us an opportunity to look beyond ourselves and hear more about what God is doing through His people elsewhere. Ian Coldrick will be joining us to update us on the work of Compassion UK, as well as bringing God's Word to us. Clive's band will lead our worship. Do join us for what promises to be an encouraging and informative morning.

Whether you are part of our regular church family or visiting us for the first time, you will be very welcome.

If you're unable to join us in person, you can watch the service online at:

NEXT WEEKEND'S FAMILY WORSHIP SERVICE - 4th October. Join us for our monthly family service as Simon and his band lead us in inspiring worship! This week, we will celebrate the Lord's generous provision in the harvest, giving thanks for His goodness and faithfulness throughout the year. Come with your family and friends to enjoy a joyful time of praise, reflection, and thanksgiving.

BREAKFAST TIME – 9:30AM (All Ages Welcome) - 4th October - Before the service, we invite you to Breakfast Time, open to everyone! This is a relaxed and welcoming space to share food, friendship, and conversation. It's a place to build relationships, show hospitality, and extend kindness and generosity - helping everyone feel valued and that they truly belong. As friendships grow, it's also an opportunity for conversations about faith to naturally develop over time. Don't miss this chance to connect, celebrate, and worship together!

This week's poem

In the rush of everyday life, it is easy to pass people by without noticing the burdens they carry; this poem reminds us that love often begins simply by seeing, stopping and caring.

The people along the way

We hurry through our busy days,
With places we must be,
And scarcely notice those around
Or what their eyes might see.

The neighbour living down the road
Who seldom sees a friend,
The weary face behind the till,
Whose shift seems without end.

The stranger sitting all alone,
The family struggling through,
The one who simply needs to know
That someone sees them too.

It may not take a mighty deed
To lighten someone's load:
A kindly word, a listening ear,
A pause along the road.

For love is more than what we feel,
Or kindly words we say;
It sees the need before our eyes
And chooses not to stray.

And perhaps among the lives we meet,
In ways we never planned,
We'll glimpse the face of Christ Himself
And stop — and lend a hand.
